MINISTRY OF COMMUNICATIONS

(Posts and Telegraphs)

New Delhi, the 7th December 1955

S.R.O. 3733.—In exercise of the powers conferred by the proviso to article 309 of the Constitution, the President hereby makes the following rules for the recruitment and training of candidates for the cadre of Engineering Supervisors in the Indian Posts and Telegraphs Department, namely:—

PART I—PRELIMINARY

1. Short title.—These rules may be called the Engineering Supervisors (Recruitment) Rules, 1955.

2. Definitions.—In these rules, unless the context otherwise requires,—

- (a) “departmental candidate” means—
 - (i) a Telegraphist,
 - (ii) a Telephone Inspector,
 - (iii) a Line Inspector,
 - (iv) a Telephone Operator,
 - (v) a Mechanics,
 - (vi) a Repeater Station Assistant,
 - (vii) a clerk of the Telegraph Engineering Branch,
 - (viii) an Engine Driver or Assistant Engine Driver,
 - (ix) an Installation Fitter,
 - (x) a Selection Grade Mechanic,
 - (xi) a Draughtsman,
 - (xii) a clerk of the Telegraph Traffic Branch.
- (xiii) a Cable joiner,
- (xiv) Main Inspectors Grade II attached to Telephone District,
- (xv) Traffic Inspector attached to Telephone District,
- (xvi) Auto Exchange Assistants employed in the Indian Posts and Telegraphs Department;
- (b) “Director-General” means the Director-General of Posts and Telegraphs;
- (c) “outside candidate” means a candidate who is not a departmental candidate;
- (d) “Service” means the service of Engineering Supervisors of the Indian Posts and Telegraphs Department in the unit of recruitment concerned.

3. Area of duty.—Members of the Service shall belong to the cadre of the unit of their recruitment and shall normally be liable for duty only within that unit. In special circumstances to be decided by the Director General, however, they may be called upon to proceed on duty to any place in India. They shall also be liable for field service within India in times of war or national emergency, provided that candidates recruited for or appointed to the Technical and Development Circle, including the office of the Senior Electrical Engineer and the Posts and Telegraphs, Training Centre, Jabalpur, shall be liable for transfer all over India.

NOTE 1.—A list of units of recruitment and the existent of their jurisdiction is given in Appendix I.

4. Method of recruitment.—Recruitment to the Service shall be as follows, namely:—

- (i) 50 per cent. by direct recruitment in accordance with Part II;
- (ii) 25 per cent. by recruitment of departmental candidates through a competitive examination held in accordance with Part III; and
- (iii) 25 per cent. by recruitment of departmental candidates through a qualifying Trade Test held in accordance with Part IV;

Provided that

- (1) any shortage in recruitment against the quota mentioned in clause (i) of this rule, shall be carried forward to the next selection;
- (2) If the number of departmental candidates who qualify in the competitive examination is less than the number of vacancies available for such candidates, the remaining vacancies shall be added to the vacancies available for candidates qualifying in the Trade Test and vice versa. The shortage if any in the overall intake of departmental and Trade Test candidates will be added to the quota reserved for outside candidates;
- (3) Departmental candidates who qualify in the the Trade Test in excess of the number of vacancies reserved for them shall be placed on a waiting list and the number of vacancies to be reserved for such candidates in the next examination shall be correspondingly reduced.

5. Place and date of examination.—The examination held under these rules shall be conducted in India by the Director General in the manner provided in Appendices B and H and at such times and places as he may fix. Notice of the date and place of the examination shall be issued through Heads of Circles in the case of examination for admission of departmental candidates. A notice calling for applications from outside candidates shall be published in the principal newspapers circulating in the unit of recruitment. Every notice under this rule shall, wherever possible, specify the number of vacancies to be filled on the results of the examination in each unit.

6. Form and contents of application.—Every outside candidate shall submit his application in the prescribed form before the date fixed by the Director General and shall indicate the unit in which he wishes to be appointed. He will be required to produce evidence to show that he has passed the Matriculation or a higher Examination of a recognised Indian University or a Secondary Education Board or an equivalent examination with Hindi, Sanskrit or the Regional Language of the unit chosen by him as one of the subjects.

A candidate in Government service shall submit his application to the Head of the Circle in which he wishes to be appointed, through the proper channel.

Departmental candidates other than General Service Repeater Station Assistants may compete for the vacancies in the unit in which they are permanently employed. They shall submit the applications in the prescribed form to the Head of the Circle concerned whether for the competitive examination or for the trade test. A General Service Repeater Station Assistant shall indicate only one unit in which he wishes to be appointed.

NOTE.—A list of Circles is given in Appendix D.

7. Selection.—Subject to the availability of vacancies in each unit, candidates shall be selected strictly in the order of merit as indicated in Appendix A for outside candidates and according to the aggregate marks in the examination for departmental candidates or, as the case may be, in the trade test.

8. Fees.—Every candidate shall pay the fees specified in Appendix C. No claim for a refund of any such fees shall be entertained, nor can such fees be held in reserve for any subsequent examination or selection.

9. Revaluation of answer papers.—No application from any candidate to have his answer papers revalued shall be entertained.

PART II—DIRECT RECRUITMENT

10. Qualifications.—A candidate must be—

- (a) a citizen of India, or
- (b) a subject of Sikkim, or
- (c) a person who has migrated from areas which now form the territory of Pakistan with the intention of permanently settling down in India, or
- (d) a subject of Nepal or of a Portugese or the State of Pondicherry,
- (e) persons who migrated to India from Pakistan before the 19th July, 1948, and have ordinarily been resident in India since then;
- (f) persons who migrated to India from Pakistan on or after the 19th July, 1948, but before the 30th September, 1948, and got themselves registered as citizens of India within the time allowed;

(g) non-citizens who entered service under the Government of India before the commencement of the Constitution, that is before the 26th January, 1950, and who have continued in such service since then.

A candidate in whose case a certificate of eligibility is necessary may be considered for selection and may also be provisionally appointed subject to the condition that the necessary certificate is eventually obtained from the Government of India.

NOTE.—The appointment of candidates in categories (c) and (d) above shall be subject to the issue of certificates of eligibility in their favour by the Government of India.

11. Special examination when required.—No male candidate who has more than one wife living shall be eligible for appointment, unless the Government of India after being satisfied that there are special grounds for doing so, exempt any male candidate from the operation of this rule.

12. Age.—A candidate must have attained the age of 17 years and must not have attained the age of 24 years on the first day of January of the year in which the applications for recruitment are called for.

NOTE 1.—The upper age-limit prescribed above may be relaxed upto a maximum of five years if a candidate belongs to a Scheduled Caste or a Scheduled Tribe.

NOTE 2.—The maximum age limit prescribed above may be relaxed upto 45 years in case of bonafide displaced persons from Pakistan and upto 50 years in case of bonafide displaced persons who also belong to the Scheduled Castes or the Scheduled Tribes.

NOTE.—In the case of a retrenched Central Government employee, previous service shall be deducted from his actual age and if the resultant age does not exceed the prescribed maximum age limit by more than 3 years, shall be deemed to satisfy the condition of age.

13. Educational qualifications.—A candidate must—

- (i) have passed the Intermediate or an equivalent examination of an Indian University with Physics and Mathematics as subjects, or
- (ii) have obtained one of the diplomas in Engineering described in Appendix E or those awarded by recognised Universities in India; or
- (iii) have successfully completed the first years' course of the three years' degree course (with Physics or Mathematics as one of the main subjects) of the University of Delhi and produce a certificate from the Principal of the College to the effect that his work and conduct during the year had been satisfactory and upto a reasonable standard; or
- (iv) have passed the pre-Engineering Examination of the Delhi University with Physics and Mathematics as subjects.

14. Acceptance or rejection of applications.—(1) Heads of Circles shall examine the applications of outside candidates and if they find that any candidate does not fulfil the conditions laid down in rule 10 to 13 they shall reject his application.

(2) Outside candidates who are in Government Service shall be selected by the Head of the Circle after a scrutiny of their confidential records. The Head of the Circle has full discretion to reject the application of a candidate whose record is unsatisfactory.

(3) Head of Circle shall give candidates, whose applications are rejected, intimation of such rejection.

15. Reserved vacancies.—Appointments to the service are subject to the orders issued by the Government of India in the Ministry of Home Affairs, from time to time, regarding special representations in the services to specified groups of citizens. Appointments to vacancies to be filled from specified groups of citizens shall be made by the appointing authority in the order of merit obtained by candidates belonging to the particular group or groups, according to the principles laid down in Appendix A.

16. Medical Examination.—Outside candidates selected for training shall be required to undergo a medical examination prescribed in Appendix F. Any candidate who does not satisfy the standards laid down in that Appendix shall not be eligible for appointment.

17. Agreement and deposit.—(1) A selected candidate shall be required before the commencement of his training to sign an agreement in the form laid down in Appendix G to serve Government for a period of 5 years from the date of his appointment as Engineering Supervisor and to deposit a sum of rupees 50 as security for the due fulfilment of the terms of the agreement.

(2) The amount of security must be deposited in a Post Office Savings Bank and the security deposit account pledged to the Head of the Circle to which the candidate submitted his application for selection in accordance with the Savings Bank rules. The pass book must be submitted to the Divisional Engineer Telegraphs, Training Centre, Jabalpur, who will forward the documents to the Head of the Circle for safe custody.

(3) The refund of the security deposit shall be authorised after the candidate has completed 5 years of service as Engineering Supervisor.

NOTE.—Permanent officials of the Posts and Telegraphs Department selected for training are exempt from the provisions of this rule.

PART III.—RECRUITMENT OF DEPARTMENTAL CANDIDATES THROUGH COMPETITIVE EXAMINATION

18. Eligibility.—(1) Departmental candidates who have passed the Matriculation or an equivalent examination and who have not more than 9 years permanent service in their respective grades on the 1st January of the year in which the examination is held will be eligible to appear for the competitive examination, in the manner prescribed in the regulations contained in Appendix B.

(2) The maximum limit of 9 years service may be relaxed by the Director General at his discretion in special cases.

NOTE.—Temporary officials who have rendered not less than three years' continuous service in their respective grades on the 1st day of January of the year in which the examination is held shall be eligible to appear in the competitive examination as departmental candidates.

19. Selection of candidates.—Heads of Circles will select suitable candidates from the applicants after a scrutiny of their confidential records. They will have full discretion to reject the application of a candidate whose record is unsatisfactory. Candidates whose applications are rejected shall be duly informed of the rejection.

20. Filling of vacancies.—Vacancies available for departmental candidates shall be filled from amongst the successful candidates in the examination strictly according to merit.

PART IV.—RECRUITMENT OF DEPARTMENTAL CANDIDATES THROUGH QUALIFYING TRADE TEST

21. Eligibility.—The following departmental candidates shall be eligible to appear for the Trade Test if they have passed the Matriculation or an equivalent examination, namely:—

Telegraph Supervisors appointed in accordance with the rules on or before the 1st July, 1954 and after the 31st December, 1949 and having a total continuous service of at least 5 years in their substantive grades, and a minimum of six months' total service as Telegraph Supervisor on the 1st July, 1954.

22. Selection of candidates.—The Head of the Circle shall select suitable candidates from amongst the applicants after a scrutiny of their confidential records. He shall have full discretion to reject the application of a candidate whose record is unsatisfactory. Candidates whose applications are rejected shall be duly informed of the rejection.

23. Subjects and Marks.—The examination under this part shall be conducted by the Director General in the manner laid down in Appendix H.

PART V.—TRAINING

24. Training.—All selected candidates shall be given a course of training for a period not exceeding 12 months, but the candidates who are Repeater Station Assistants shall be given a course of training for a period not exceeding six months. The syllabus for the training course, including the examination (written, practical and oral), and the minimum number of qualifying marks for each such examination and other connected details shall be such as may from time to time be laid down by the Director General.

25. Removal of unsuitable candidates.—Any candidate who is found unsuitable at any stage or who fails to secure the minimum qualifying marks at any of the examinations shall be liable to immediate removal from the class and shall not be allowed to sit again for the entrance examinations referred to in rule 4.

PART VI—APPOINTMENT

26. Appointment.—(a) Every candidate who has successfully completed the course of training, shall be appointed on probation for a period of one-year.

(b) If, in the opinion of the appointing authority, the work or conduct of a period appointed on probation is unsatisfactory, or shows that he is unlikely to become efficient, the appointing authority may discharge him forthwith.

(c) On the satisfactory completion of his period of probation, the appointing authority may confirm the official in his appointment or, if his work or conduct has in the opinion of the appointing authority been unsatisfactory, the appointing authority may either discharge him from the service or may extend his period of probation by such further period as the appointing authority may think fit.

(d) If no action is taken by the appointing authority under sub-rule (b) or sub-rule (c), the period after the prescribed period of probation shall be treated as an engagement from month to month, terminable, on either side, on the expiry of one calendar month's notice in writing.

27. Conditions of service.—The conditions of service of persons recruited under these rules shall those set out in Appendix J.

APPENDIX A

(See rule 7)

A candidate will be required to submit a certified copy of the marks obtained by him in the compulsory subjects at the Intermediate examination of an Indian University with Physics and Mathematics as the subjects or the marks obtained in other equivalent examinations referred to in rule 13.

In the case of a candidate who has successfully completed the first year's course of the University of Delhi referred to in item (iii) of rule 13, the marks obtained by him in the examination at the end of the first year's course will require attestation by the Principal of the College concerned.

The selection shall be made strictly on the basis of marks.

A graduate in Science or Arts with Mathematics and/or Physics will be allowed to add 15 marks to the marks obtained out of an aggregate of 200 at the Intermediate or equivalent examinations referred to in rule 13.

Similarly B.Sc. (Hons), M.A. or M.Sc. in Mathematics or Physics will be allowed to add 25 marks to the marks obtained out of an aggregate of 200, at the Intermediate or equivalent examinations referred to in rule 13.

In case of any doubts the decision of the Director-General thereon shall be final.

NOTE 1—The details of marks obtained in the Intermediate or equivalent examinations are necessary as only such candidates will be entertained for selection as have obtained 40 per cent. in Mathematics and Physics and in either of the two subjects by the candidates referred to in Rule 13 (iii).

The selection of candidates prescribed in this appendix shall be made by a Board as indicated below:—

APPENDIX J

(See rule 27)

General conditions of service prescribed for candidates recruited to the grade of Engineering Supervisors.

1. Officers recruited under these rules shall be eligible for leave, increment and pension in accordance with the rules for the time being in force applicable to officers of the Central Government. They will also be eligible to join the General Provident Fund in accordance with the rules regulating that Fund.

2. Allowances during training.—During the period of training, direct recruits will receive an allowance of Rs. 80 p.m. or such amount as may be fixed from time to time.

Departmental candidates as well as officials of the Posts and Telegraphs Department other than departmental candidates specified in rule 2(b) will be entitled to the pay and allowances that they would have drawn but for their deputation to the training class, or the training allowance, whichever is greater.

3. Discipline.—During the period of training and until they are posted to a station for duty, the Engineering Supervisors will remain under the disciplinary control of the Divisional Engineer, Training Centre, Jabalpur.

4. Scale of pay.—(1) The prescribed scale of pay for Engineering Supervisors is Rs. 100—8—140—10—300.

Higher initial pay of Rs. 124 in the said scale is allowed to candidates who have completed their full course of training including those who have been recruited through "Trade Test".

(2) Departmental telegraphists who were in service on the 18th April 1927, and have not elected the prescribed scales and are eligible for promotion to the rank of Engineering Supervisors will, on such promotion, be brought on to the old scale of Rs. 80—5—100—10—250—20—350 (with an efficiency bar at the stage of Rs. 250) under Fundamental Rule 22(a) (i) and will get a special pay of Rs. 40 subject to a maximum of pay and special pay of Rs. 350.

(3) Departmental telegraphists who entered the Department after the 18th April 1927 and other departmental candidates who are entitled to the old rates of pay will be brought on the scale of Rs. 120—5—140—10—290—20—350 (with an efficiency bar at the stage of Rs. 290) under the Fundamental Rules and will not get any special pay.

5. House rent allowance.—Members of the Service recruited to the Unit "Technical and Development Circle" shall be eligible while serving in that unit for house rent allowance or rent free quarters in lieu thereof, at the rates admissible to members of the all India Service of Engineering Supervisors. Other members of the Service shall be eligible for house rent allowance at the rates sanctioned for other Central Government servants at the station of their posting but shall, in the event of their transfer to posts in the Technical and Development Circle including the offices in that recruitment unit, be eligible for house rent allowance or rent free quarters in lieu thereof, at the rates admissible to members of the all India Service of Engineering Supervisors.

6. Signalling test.—All Engineering Supervisors recruited under these rules will be required during the first five years of their service to pass annually a signalling test to earn their annual increment of pay; unless they are employed in the Telephone and Carrier Branches. The particulars of this test and the conditions under which it can be waived will be specified by the Director General.

These conditions of service are subject to revision according to the requirements of service. Candidates will not be entitled to any compensation if they are adversely affected by any changes in the conditions of service which may be introduced later on.
